RE: Coastal Zone Consistency for Corps Reference No. 202000955,
Taylor Shellfish Equity Trust Tidelands Lease, Thurston County, Washington

Dear Erin Ewald:

On April 14, 2021, the Department of Ecology received a Certification of Consistency with the Washington State Coastal Zone Management Program (CZMP) for the above project.

This determination is for the proposed project to commercially cultivate up to 10 acres of oysters between 0.0 foot (ft.) and -4.5 ft. Extreme Low tidal elevation on parcel number 93039000000. Access to tidelands is by boat.

The cultivation of oysters for commercial production are grown in bags, near bottom, and on-bottom as both singles and clusters. Harvest takes place manually by hand during low tide and oysters are placed into tubs for pick up and transfer. Bags are harvested by pulling and emptying oysters onto barges for transfer. Bags are reused and hatchery seed is used. Dredge harvest is also proposed for this location. The dredge draws the oysters from the substrate, which are then loaded into tubs on the boat and then conveyed to trucks for processing at Taylor facilities.

This site will include the use of gravel, which is sourced from local providers and is cleaned and washed. In any given year, up to 1,340 cubic yards of gravel may be used throughout the project area and spread up to 1 inch deep. The gravel depth is monitored over time and replenished when the surface is no longer adequate for shellfish cultivation.

The project site is located on tidelands within Eld Inlet, on parcel number 93039000000, near Olympia, Thurston County, Washington; Section 1, Township 18 North, Range 3 West; WRIA 13, Deschutes Watershed.

Pursuant to Section 307(c)(3) of the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 as amended, Ecology concurs with Taylor Shellfish Farms determination that the proposed work is consistent with Washington's CZMP.
