Re: Coastal Zone Management Federal Consistency Decision for I-5 Tributaries to Friday, Lake, and Chuckanut Creeks – Fish Passage (Lake Creek), (Corps No. NWS-2025-0035-DOT), Lake Creek, near Bellingham, Whatcom County, Washington

Dear Mark Stamey:

On February 3, 2025, the Department of Ecology (Ecology) received a Certification of Consistency with the Washington State Coastal Zone Management Program (CZMP) for the above project. Ecology issued a 21-day public notice on February 14, 2025. Pursuant to Section 307(c)(3) of the Coastal Zone Management Act of 1972 as amended, Ecology concurs with WA Department of Transportation's determination that the proposed work is consistent with Washington's CZMP.

The proposed work includes installing two new fish passable culverts; one under the northbound lanes and one under the southbound lanes of Interstate 5. The existing culverts location to the south of the new structures will be abandoned in place by filling them with a concrete density fill. The new culverts are single span buried structures approximately 60 to 62 feet long by 28 feet wide. The stream will be re-graded and re-aligned to the new culverts. Other mitigation elements include adding meander bars inside the new culverts as well as large wood debris in the and around the new structures. The work will permanently impact existing wetlands but these impacts have been minimized to the extent practicable. The new culverts will provide an overall net increase in aquatic resources by increasing channel length, incorporating elements to increase habitat complexity and restoring all disturbed areas with native species. This activity is located on Interstate 5 at milepost 245.76 on Lake Creek and adjacent wetlands near Bellingham in Whatcom County, Washington.
