Early Notice Letter: Facility Site #11246231*

Dear Ms. Musa:

I write on behalf of my clients, 9725 Greenwood, LLC, Owners of the Property referenced above.

As you may know, in July of 2017, my client received an Early Notice Letter. I enclose a copy of that correspondence from Louise Bardy of your office.

My understanding is that Thom Booth, the consultant we hired to investigate and determine exactly why it was my clients received the Notice Letter, has talked with you about that Letter and Department of Ecology assumptions and/or understandings that may have been in error. Specifically, the Owner of the Property next door (All Star Auto Collision Center) has never had any ownership interest in my clients' Property, nor operated its collision center business on my clients' Property. As Mr. Moalem, a Member of 9725 Greenwood, LLC, previously advised via email to you on July 24, 2017, for a very short time, All Star leased my clients' Property to store U-Haul trailers. Significantly, All Star never performed any automotive repair related business on the 9725 Greenwood, LLC Property excepting the trailer rentals.

I am writing to determine (presuming my information from Thom is correct) as to what the Department may specifically need from my clients so that the referenced Early
