

2.1.4 Public Involvement and Participation – S5.C.4

Permittees shall provide ongoing opportunities for public involvement and participation in the Permittee's SWMP and implementation priorities.

Minimum performance measures:

- a. Permittees shall create opportunities for the public to participate in the decision-making processes involving the development, implementation and update of the Permittee's SWMP.*

King County solicits public comment on the contents of the SWMP Plan. King County advertises the comment period online at kingcounty.gov/stormwater, social media, and eNewsletters. Public feedback is reviewed, and included as part of the SWMP Plan, in Appendix F.2.

In addition to the SWMP Plan public comment period, King County welcomes feedback year round. Comments emailed to Stormwater@kingcounty.gov or mailed to Stormwater Management Team, King County Dept. of Natural Resources and Parks, 601 S. Jackson St., Suite 600, Seattle, WA 98104 are also included in the SMWP Plan

King County is updating public engagement practices to include equity and environmental justice considerations in decision-making processes when it comes to siting, construction, and maintenance of County-initiated capital projects.

- b. Each Permittee shall post on their website their SWMP Plan, and the annual report required under S9.A no later than May 31 each year. All other submittals shall be available to the public upon request.*

No later than March 31st of each year beginning in 2015, King County will post its updated SWMP Plan online at www.kingcounty.gov/environment/wlr/sections-programs/stormwater-services-section/stormwater-program.aspx. Other submittals related to the Municipal Permit are available upon request by sending an email to Stormwater@kingcounty.gov.
