FY 2008 Stormwater and Reclaimed Water Funding Programs Workshops

from Ecology's Water Quality Program

The Washington State Department of Ecology (Ecology) invites you to participate in public workshops during the month of July 2007. Ecology staff will discuss and help with the grant application process for the:

- Stormwater Management Implementation Grants Program, FY 2008 (Statewide) and
- Reclaimed Water Grants Program, FY 2008 (Puget Sound Basin Projects)

Applications for funding consideration for the Reclaimed Water Grants Program will be accepted from July 2, 2007, to August 31, 2007, and for the Stormwater Management Implementation Grants Program from July 2, 2007, to September 14, 2007.

During the Stormwater Grants Programs Workshops, staff will also explain the offer and award provisions of the Local Government Stormwater Grants Program, FY 2008.

The Workshops will begin at the times listed below for each specific program.
